

Los 10 imprescindibles de Ávila

1. The Wall: On it, at their foot, its inside, outside, by day, by night... Spectacular in every single way
2. Our architecture is a pleasure, but the Cathedral and the palaces that you'll find in their surroundings... Are simply wonderful
3. City Hall's square, commonly called "El Chico". If it's Friday you can enjoy the traditional food market
4. Eat smashed potatoes and a good Avileño T-bone steak. If after eating them you're still thinking about dessert... you have to taste the famous egg yolk cakes!

5. Get lost in our alleys, discovering incredibly well – conserved palaces and churches as Basilica de San Vicente, Verdugo Palace, Santo Tomás Monastery, Dávila Palace...
6. As every "big" city, we've a park with big trees where you can connect with nature: San Antonio Park
7. Enjoy a unique moment seeing the sunset at Puerta del Carmen, having the Wall's north face as your host
8. Cuatro Postes sightseeing is a must
9. Take a walk in El Rastro, contemplating Amblés Valley, a privileged location where you can understand why this wonderful place was chosen to lay down the city
10. Depending on the dates of your trip you can attend to different cultural exhibitions placed in our different palaces, know everything about the origins and history of Avila in the local museum or going to fabulous spectacles at the modern exhibition and conference centre of Lienzo Norte

And if it would be eleven essentials, next one should be come to visit our hotel and taste our delicious food
